- Back Office and Operations.

Our recruitment process

We offer a 'no cure, no fee' service. Where possible, we meet with you in order to gain a thorough understanding of your individual requirements before the recruitment process begins.

Our exceptional service gives you access to:

- Our professional network – we first contact thousands of reference-checked candidates who have worked for us in the past
- Our local and international candidate database – we have a database containing the details of more than 800,000 candidates from Belgium, Luxembourg and all over the world
- Free advertising – we promote your vacancies gratis on both general and niche websites such as eFinancial, Monster and Vacature
- A global resource team based in Europe, Asia and the USA, ensuring 24/7 recruitment for your vacancy
- A dedicated Client Services Manager who will act as the first point of contact and manage your account to ensure that you receive a consistently high performance level and quality of service.

In addition to our all-inclusive process - where we interview and check the references of each candidate that we put forward - we are also happy to share market rate information with you and negotiate with candidates on your behalf.

Our commitment to customer satisfaction

Responsive to our clients' needs, and providing solutions to meet their specific requirements, we also advise our clients on how to improve the success rate in filling their vacancies. As we continue to establish lasting relationships with many of our clients, our repeat business rates top the industry standard - a clear sign to us that our customers value the quality of the experts we deliver and the efficient and speedy process we are able to implement.
